Subject: Appointment as Co-Founder and Chief Technology Officer (CTO)

Dear Yadnyesh,

We are pleased to officially offer you the role of Co-Founder and Chief Technology Officer (CTO) at JalTantra Solutions, a company committed to revolutionizing sustainable agriculture through smart irrigation technologies.

Your technical expertise, visionary thinking, and dedication to the core mission of JalTantra have been instrumental in shaping our product and purpose. As CTO, you will be leading all aspects of technological development, product innovation, and system architecture.

This offer is extended in recognition of your contributions and commitment, and we are excited to continue this journey together as co-founders building a better future for Indian farmers.

Welcome aboard as a key pillar of JalTantra!

Warm regards,

Shubham Kulkarni
